FAT STOCK SHOW IS ON

Greatest Number of Animals Ever Exhibited.

USE ALL SPACE AVAILABLE

Despite Inclement Weather There Is a Large Attendance Opening Day. Governor Campbell Not Present, Having Been Detained at Austin.

Fort Worth, March 13.—Although a drizzling rain was falling and the atmosphere was chilly the National Feeders and Breeders' show opened in the Coliseum with a large attendance of visitors. Governor Campbell, who was to make the opening address and Hon. Louis J. Wortham, who was to respond, were detained at Austin.

The stock show was formally opened by Mayor Grant of North Fort Worth, who made a most excellent address, in which he gave the visitors a cordial welcome.

Never before was there such an exhibit of livestock. There are over 5,000 animals on hand and every available inch of space is occupied.

One animal that excites the greatest curiosity is a catalo. This gigantic animal was captured on Antelope island, in the middle of the Great Salt lake, Utah. Before he was captured he gored several horses to death. The vicious brute it kept in a steel cage. He is eighteen hands high, weighs 2,800 pounds and resembles a buffalo.

Sacred cattle from India are also a feature.

Forty Indians under command of Chief Quanah Parker are also present. They are arrayed in buckskin, feathers and heads.

Fully 1,600 fowls are on exhibition, many of them superb specimens.

The fine horses and cattle come in for a great deal of favorable comment.

Fort Worth is elaborately decorative and presents a gala appearance.

NO DANGER IN AFRICA.

Only Thing Mr. Roosevelt Need Fear Is the Crocodile.

Chicago, March 13.—Former President Roosevelt will be as safe in the jungles of Africa as he would be on the streets of an American city, according to the Rev. Joseph A. Coyle, a member of the Roman Catholic Missionary Order of Josephine Fathers, who has just returned here from his work in Uganda.

"It is ridiculous," he said, "to represent Mr. Roosevelt's trip as dangerous. The natives are docile and peaceful. At Katampa a dozen white men live among 60,000 blacks. The sound of the angels is heard throughout the land. Few white men have been afflicted with the sleeping sickness. The worse. Mr. Roosevelt should exercise great care as to his son.

"As to wild beasts, well, I have traveled hundreds of miles through the forests on a donkey with no other weapon than an umbrella. They will prowl around your tent at night, but they dare not attack you as a rule. Only the crocodile is dangerous. It is well not to go in swimming."

Says Socialism Is Coming.

New York, March 13.—Miss Charlotte Teller, daughter of United States Senator Teller of Colorado things that former President Roosevelt has been a great aid to socialism in the United States. Miss Teller with a number of other speakers shared this view at a dinner of the Intercollegiate Socialist society. She said that "Mr. Roosevelt has to a large extent helped socialism and the man now in the presidential chair will within the next four years make the work that Roosevelt has done legal and regular." Harvard, Yale, Princton, Columbia, Vassar, New York university and Bryan Mawr were represented at the meeting.

One Killed, Several Injured.

Norfolk, Va., March 13.—Fireman Lindsay was killed and several others injured in a headon collision between a southbound Seaboard Air Line passenger train and freight at Colon, N. C., near Aberdeen.

CLOCK SET BACK.

This Done to Prevent Slaughtering of Bills.

Austin, March 13.—When the house met Saturday morning on notice of Turney the Kennedy matter gave way to pending legislation.

Representatives Fuller, Munson and Brown were appointed to notify the governor that the house was finishing its business and preparing to adjourn. Messrs. Fitzhugh, Jackson and Rayburn were appointed to notify the senate.

Senate bill fixing time of holding court in sixty-third judicial and providing for payment of jury commissioners passed finally.

The house discussed for one hour, finally concurring in, the free conference report on the joint resolution providing for Confederate pensions and Confederate widows' home, several members protesting against concurring, when it was discovered the house and had gone to the governor.

Speaker Kennedy, at 10 o'clock, in order, as he said, that no bills might be slaughter, ordere the clock set back two hours. Fifteen minutes later Senators Peeler, Bryan and Cofer appeared as a committee from the senate, announcing that body was finishing its business and preparing to adjourn.

The house recalled the joint resolution providing for Confederate pensions and Confederate widow's home, rescinded to vote concurring in the free conference committee report and then rejected that vote. A motion by Robertson to concur in the senate amendments to concur in the senate thirds vote, which is equivilent to killing the resolution.

Senate bill requiring other than life insurance companies to make bond before transacting business in the state was discussed half an hour and passed finally.

Joint resolution seeking to authorize counties to vote tax to aid construction of interurban lines were discussed twenty minutes, and deefated, 52 to 40.

Robertson raised the point of order against the ruling of chair (Standifer) that a two-thirds vote is necessary to adopt senate amendments to Confederate pensions resolution and chair the reversed ruling, declaring the amendments adopted thus restoring the resolution to complete life.

Terrell (of Bexar) appealed from the ruling of the chair.

After discussing Terrell's appeal for thirty minutes Terrell withdrew his appeal, the house reconsidered the vote on the Confederate resolution and concurred in the amendments, 94 to 16.

The house passed finally senate bills giving district courts right to extend terms.

Brownlee secured reconsideration of the vote killing the Wolf county bill, and oratory turned to discussion of labor and boll weevil.

Robertson (of Travis) contended the state owes a duty to citizens to protect them from wolves.

Luce insisted that too much money was devoted to insignificant purposes. He declared scalps would be imported to claim bounty and denied that wolves destroy watermelons.

MENTIONS NAMES.

Thomas Tells of Alleged Participants In Poker Game.

Austin, March 13.—When the senate met Saturday the motion to expel Senator Thomas was taken up. Thomas spoke against the resolution. He said the evidence presented to the investigating committee showed a man he designated a "prominent lobbyist" played poker with three senators and three members of the house; that a "prominent lobbyist" paid fines for three; that a leading business man lost $1,000 in the same game. Thomas said gambling with lobbyists was equivilent to being influenced by them. Matter was still pending at noon.

Seven Burned to Death.

Pueblo, Mex., March 13.—Seven persons were burned to death in the town of Resurrection when the mansion of Augustine Zerrano was destroyed by an incendiary fire, cremating the family. The police declare either murder was committed for the purpose of robbery before the house was set on fire or that the victims were chloroformed and left to their fate.

SLAIN IN ITALY.

New York Police Lieutenant Assassinated at Palermo.

Palumo, Italy, March 13.—Lieutenant Joseph Petrosino of the New York police department was shot and killed early Saturday evening near a hotel. The assassin is unknown.

Joseph Petrosino was Black Hand expert of the New York police department and a terror to Italian criminals. It is said there are more convictions for murder to his credit than any five policemen connected with the detective bureau. In his work he naturally incurred the enmity of all Italian criminals, and his death leads to the belief that he at last fell a victim to those whom he so relentlessly prosecuted.

He came to Italy more than a year ago to work on a plan suggested by Police Commissioner Bingham of New York, the basis of which was to be the adoption of means to check the tide of undesirable Italians and Sicilians to his country and particularly to New York city.

A cablegram was from New York says that as soon as the news of the assassination of Lieutenant Petrosino was received there Chief of Detectives McCafferty cabled chiefs of police in every European large city asking them to round up all Black Hand suspects.

ROBS THROUGH WINDOW.

Daring and Unusual Method Employed by Negro.

Chicago, March 13.—Mrs. Delia M. Crane, a Chicago artist, who is back from Jacksonville, Fla., is reported to have been the victim of a daring hold-up near that place.

While comfortably seated in a Pullman car, which had slowed down at a railroad crossing, she is said to have been robbed of $650 in money and $2,300 worth of jewelry by a negro, who, running alongside and thrusting his head and shoulders through the window, grabbed her valuables. She instantly grabbed her bag, according to the story, just as the hands of the intruder closed upon it. A struggle ensued and Mrs. Crane called for aid. Determined not to surrender Mrs. Crane vainly strove to wrench her property from the negro's hands, but he gave a tug backward, and, pulling her arms out through the window, gave a sudden twist, broke her grip and dropped off the train with his loot. Every cent that Mrs. Crane had in her possession was stolen.

Taken to Prison.

Manila, March 13.—The writs of mandamus for habeas corpus sought by counsel for Dominador Gomez, who was sentenced to four months' imprisonment in Bilibid for inciting a strike, have been denied and the convicted labor leader has been taken to prison. Large crowds gathered at the police court headquarters, but there was no demonstration on the streets.

Mabray Indcted.

Council Bluffs, Ia., March 13.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment against John Mabray, recently arrested in Little Rock charging the use of mails for fraudulent purposes.

Mabray is now under arrest at Little Rock with a number of others accused of many swindles in various parts of the country by means of fake horse races, wrestling matches, etc. The indictmets returned are in connection with the alleged swindle of Samuel Sutor of Cass Lake, Minn.

Meets Obstinate Resistance.

Paris, March 13.—The French mission engaged in the delimitation of the Franco-Liberian frontier, met with obstinate resistance on the part of natives. Two sharp engagements have been fought in which a doctor was killed and two officers and twenty soldiers killed or wounded.

Man Robbed; Mother Beaten.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 13.—A masked man stole $300 and a bunch of checks from under the pillow of Joseph Thompson, express agent at Model City, while Mr. Thompson slept. Latter's mother met the man and he beat her severely.

Earth Shocks Recorded.

Manila, March 13.—Local seismograph records serious earthquakes continually from 7:26 to 9:40 o'clock Saturday morning. It was estimated that the region of disturbance was 10,000 kilometers distant.

Henry Clay Shot.

Dallas, March 13.—Henry Clay, a negro, was seriously shot in the vicinity of a chicken house, it is alleged. He was taken to the city hospital.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MARCH 14, 1909.

Mistah Jack Johnsin, who made made Galveston famous, was refused aaccomodation at first-class hotels in Canada.

If this season's corsets are as beautiful and wonderful as the advertisers say they are, we wonder why the ladies don't wear them on the outside.

Senator Thomas of Hopkins is too bright and good to associate with such a rabble of publicans and sinners as the other senators. If they don't expel him he ought to expel them.

The "General" Washington who raved and ranted and tore his clothes for eleven hours before the jury in the Cooper-Sharp murder case at Nashville is not the hero of the hatchet story redivivus, nor is he a lineal descendant of the boy who couldn't tell a lie.

Mr. Taft has been made a Steam Shoveller at sight, a Mason at sight and they are talking abuot making him a farmer at sight, whereupon the Mayor of Chalk Bluff (wherever that is) thinks Atlanta and New Orleans missed a grand opportunity when they failed to make him a Democrat at sight.

One of the greatest needs of Brazos county is a systematic effort of some sort to promote immigration. A new organization is not needed. The Retail Merchants' Associatin or the Farmers' Union or—better still—both co-operating, could do it. Homeseekers are coming to Texas in trainloads, but what any of them see of Brazos county is limited to the glimpses they catch while whizzing through on the trains. They don't stop because nobody has invited them and they have no reason to believe they would be welcome.

Hon. Cone Johnson is certainly one of the ablest and most influential statewide prohibitionists in Texas and here is what he says about platform demands in a letter to the Houston Post of last Saturday: "Just how binding these platform enunciations are to be on the legislature each legislator must decide for himslf and answer to the people for his rejection of his party's promises." This is unquestionably true, each legislator is responsible alone to the people who sent him to Austin.

The advisory committee appointed by the mass meeting under the auspices of the Retail Merchants' Association at Carnegie Hall Friday afternoon is composed of business men selected with a view of making it as thoroughly representative as possible of the most important business interests of the city. While it is not vested with legal authority, the circumstances under which this committee was created, independent of the high character of its personelle, entitle it to the respect due to a semi-official body. By requesting the business men to take this action the city administration has greatly strengthened its position.

"THE YOUNG MAN IN LOVE."

Dr. Butler Delighted Large Audience at Carnegie Hall With Fine Lecture.

Regardless of very disagreeable weather conditions the lecture drew a large audience and all were more than repaid for "braving the elements." All who knew Dr. Butler during his pastorate here knew in advance that a rare treaat was in store, and those who had heard of him through reputation only, likewise looked forward to an exceptional entertainment, and notwithstanding the fact that it was practically his first attempt at lecturing, and that his subject was especially chosen on short notice and prepared for this occasion during the few spare moments of a busy time, it was a gem of humor, wit, good counsel and advice, and all were made to feel that real love is the motive power of the useful life. His vivid word pictures of the young lover in both the abnormal, and nomal states made an impression that will be as lasting as time itself upon the minds of the old and young alike.

It is as natural for the young man to fall in love with a young woman as it is for the average hungry American to eat, and to forcefully illustrate the comparison, he said if all the chickens the American people ate were condensed into one rooster that he would be big enough to stand upon American soil and crow in such clarion tones as to awaken the people of Mars.

And if all the beefsteaks they ate were condensd into one big steer, he could stand with his forefeet on the equator, and with his tail swish the iclicles offthe north pole.

The young man's appetite is greatly affected while in the abnormal state of love, for example one of the young men of Bryan while in that state had subsisted on half a biscuit for a whole week.

The entire lecture was filled with apt illustrations and wit, wisdom and humor were eloquently and beautifully blended.

SOCIAL AND CLUB MATTERS.

Club Notes.

At the meeting of the Mutual Improvement Club on Wednesday, a very importaant business session was held prior to the literary program arranged for the hour.

Among other important measures discussed and voted upon, was the unanimous decision of the members to change the Club name from Mutual Improvement Club to the Woman's Club. Many tender and loving memories cluster around the name of the dear old "M. I. C.," and to those who have known and loved it long—and especially to those whose names were on the Charter Roll—it will take a time to coavince them that "a rose by any other name would smell as sweet." But such the Club has decided, and so it remains. The writer bids welcome to the Woman's Club, and joins hand and heart in the effort to make for it a name, equal in usefulness, profit and pleasure as has ever been accorded its predecessor.

At this meeting also the articles of the Constitution and the By-Laws of the Club relating to a limited membership were amended, in order to accomodate the many applications received. Eighteen new names were added to the Club roll at this meeting, and several other applications will be voted on at the next meeting. The newly elected members are Mesdames G. M. Brandon, H. W. South, S. R. Henderson, Albert Buchanan, Webb Howell, John Astin, George Adams, J. L. Lay, Herrick, Geo. R. Tabor, J. A. McQueen, J. B. Hines, G. W. Emory, W. C. Davis, T. R. Batte, Evans, Rob Roberts and Frank Webb.

On Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Astin, seventy-five little tots were delightfully entertained by little Miss Ona May Astin, who chose to share the happiness of her sixth birthday with her friends. Quite a number of games were played, each of the guests taking part, and at no time from the arrival to the departure of the little ones was there an idle moment for them. Contained in a large bag, which the mother of the little hostess brought in, were Tom Smith crackers with cords attached. When the bag was broken open the crackers were scattered and the children scambled for them. On pulling the cord attached, souvenirs were discovered concealed in the crackers. Other interesting games were enjoyed, chief among them was a fishing game, when each child with hook and line fished from bowls of water, artificial ducks, fish, etc. In the center of the handsomely decorated table was an embossed birthday cake encircled by six candles; the little guests found much pleasure in cutting for the dime, ring, thimble and button. Delicious cream and cake were served.

This dainty little hostess received many pretty and handsome gifts from her friends, and each one went away, wishing for her many happy returns of the day.

Miss Francis Fountain entertained most charmingly the members of the Bachelor Girls Club on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fountain. At the appointed hour the guests arrived and were most cordially welcomed into this pretty home by the pleasant hostess. The handsome mantel, tables and cabinets were very prettily decorated with pink carnations. Miss Fountain is famed for always providing something novel in connection with perfectly delightful entertainments, and this one proved no exception to her rule. Three different contests were enjoyed. Misses Ruby James, Gussie Buchanan and Sarah Allen were winners in the contests, and were given dainty and handsome prizes. A refreshment course was served, and placed on each plate was a carnation and spray of fern.

The weekly meeting of the Embroidery Club was held on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, with Mrs. R. M. Gordon, at the handsome home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Saunders. White carnations, palms and ferns were the only decorations used. Mrs. Gordon, always a gracious hostess, added much to her guests' enjoyment. During these pleasant hours, a lovely menu, consisting of frozen eggnog and angel food cake, was served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Saunders. Each member went away at the close of the afternoon fully in touch with the work and spirit of cordiality that pervades its membership.

Bishop Joseph S. Key who performed the marriage ceremony of Miss Loula Coulter and Mr. W. F. Hoppess on Wednesday evening, was most charmingly entertained by Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Morris whilee in the city. On Wednesday evening Bishop Key was honor guest at a beautiful six o'clock dinner by Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Morris at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. Shettles and a few of the Bishop's friends were the only guests present.

An elaborate menu was served. The evening was quite pleasantly spent. Bishop Key left on the midnight train for his home in Sherman.

Mrs. John M. Lawrence was the charming hostess to the Week End Club on Friday afternoon. Forty-two formed the diversion of the afternoon, and six tables of players participated. The parlors were warmed by a cherry blaze from the fire-place, which not only carries with it warmth, but imparts comfort and congeniality. Elegant refreshments were served, and the guests separated in a happy frame of mind at having spent such a delightful afternoon.
